

Criminal Warrants Office

You are at a safe location.

You avoid the police coming to your home.

You avoid the police coming to your place of employment.

You avoid paying towing fees if your vehicle is towed, because you are stopped by the police and arrested.

When turning yourself in you can make prior arrangements with an attorney, bondsman, your employer, and your family as needed.

A safe location for wanted persons to voluntarily surrender themselves peacefully.

24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The Criminal Warrants Division will not discuss any information over the phone related to outstanding warrants.